The mission of the ABA is to promote the business of every member. This is accomplished through the mutual exchange of business among its members and the recommendation of ABA members to other businesses.

Overview

The ABA is a category-exclusive business networking and referral organization. Only one business from a selected category (i.e., accounting, banking, construction, etc.) may become a member.

Currently, over 50 different business categories are represented in ABA. Sole proprietorships, partnerships, corporations, and associations who are of good character and possess an outstanding business & professional reputation are eligible for membership.

If you would like to learn more about our organization, we invite you to attend a meeting. The ABA meets every Wednesday from 7:00 am to 8:30 am at Ruth's Chris Steakhouse (2201 E. Camelback Rd. #106-A).

Member Publications

The ABA publishes and distributes The Leader, a weekly publication exclusively for our members. Each issue contains:

- Calendar of events
- Bio and business profile of a selected member

- All leads and referrals given/ shared among members at that week's meeting
- Important announcements
- Board of Directors' contact information

The ABA also publishes a Member Directory each quarter for distribution to members, employees, clients, referral sources, potential members, media, etc. The Directory contains each member's business category, name, address, phone, fax, email, and company website information.

Become A Member

As a category-exclusive business networking and sales referral organization, ABA allows only one business from a designated category (i.e., accounting, banking, construction, etc.) to join as a member. To learn if your category is available for membership, click on the Member Directory link on our website, located at azbizalliance.org. Sole proprietorships, partnerships, corporations, and associations who are of good character and possess an outstanding business & professional reputation are eligible for membership.

To Become A New Member

The application process for a new member begins by filling out and returning an Application Form. You may request this form by contacting the ABA office at 602/ 331-7249.
